

Aslam Abdullah

---

- Publications 400 papers in professional magazines and journals, and over 10 books on various aspects of Islam with particular reference to South Asia.
- Experience
- 2004–current Islamic Society of Nevada, Las Vegas, NV
Executive Director
- Conducting religious services
  - Participating in interfaith forums
  - Teaching Islamic Studies at various levels
- 1999—current The Muslim Observer Detroit, MI
Editor in Chief of the English weekly
- Writing Op ed pieces
  - Conducting interviews
  - Developing editorial policies
- 1989__2004 The Minaret Los Angeles, CA
Editor in Chief of the Premier English Monthly
- Expanded the Minaret into a monthly magazine.
  - Expanded it into a national magazine
  - Encouraged interfaith dialogue through the media
- 1987–1989 American Islamic College. Chicago, IL
Vice-President and Assistant Professor
- Taught courses in Islamic and Arabic Studies
  - Taught courses in Sociology
  - Developed courses on Muslim Americans.
- Education 1971–1987 India, England
- Masters in Sociology, Islamic and Ph.D in journalism
- Interests
- Teaching and giving lectures on Islamic history, theology with reference to South Asia etc. Read, write and speak, Urdu, Hindi, a little bit of Farsi and Arabic
- Taught Islam at Cal-State Fullerton, lectures on Islam at Claremont Colleges, UNLV, CSSN, University of La Verne, Mt. Sac College etc