

Johnson Ojo Bio:

Johnson Ojo, EdD., REHS, Special programs manager, with the San Francisco Health Dept. Environmental Health Section for 27 years. Dr. Ojo currently manages the massage program, Healthy Housing Hotel/Shelters, Tattoo and Body Piercing and Retail Tobacco sales to minors prevention programs. He is the author of the City and County of SF, Rules and Regulations for massage program. In 2006 he authored the legislation on “How to Control Bed bug Infestation in SF., the first in California and probably the country. He is the Coordinator of the Mayor’s Interagency Massage Task Force on stopping Human Trafficking. Founding partner of the San Francisco Interagency Collaboration Group for assisting at risk tenants with hoarding and cluttering habits, a member of the Mental Health Assoc. of SF Task Force on Compulsive Hoarding and Cluttering and the SF Tuberculosis Task Force.